

Modern Slavery Act 2015 Statement

As a regulated firm, we always work to the highest professional standards and comply with all laws and regulations applicable to our business. We expect the same high standards from those parties we engage with and we are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chain.

We work to embed throughout our operations a robust risk management framework to ensure we effectively analyse and manage the risks to our business. This includes analysing the risk of inadvertently working with suppliers who do not share our commitment to anti-slavery and human trafficking.

As suppliers are partners in our business success, they are expected to comply with all local laws and regulations.

We encourage anyone (including employees, sub-contractors, suppliers and clients) to report in good faith any issues or concerns about potential violation of human rights, legal or regulatory requirements, and improper or unethical business practices such as fraud or bribery.

This statement is made on behalf of QIC Global (and its subsidiaries which include Antares and Qatar Re) and is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes the QIC Global's slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31 December 2018.

James M Linsao
General Counsel